We have some great new products for selection

Cicada was born out of a love and passion for the educational sector over thirty years ago. We love learning and aiding young people on their educational journey towards greatness. Over the years it is estimated that our eclectic range of products have been utilised in over 100,000 schools and childcare centres throughout the UK and beyond.

2020 has opened our eyes wider to the magic behind teaching — we want to help nurture the next generation and inspire young minds to reach their full potential. Our hand-picked new range of products for this year offers an exciting opportunity for unique and limitless imaginative play.

Encouraging learning play is fundamental to Cicada's offering. As a result we are excited to announce our top selling product has just got smaller... the MINI Tuff tray & Stand is the perfect solution for smaller classroom settings. Whether the tray is used on the floor or on its stand this mini version of our Large Tuff tray will undoubtedly intensify enthusiasm for messy play.

Whatever your educational need, this catalogue is bursting with worthy contenders. So why not explore and see what wonders you uncover?

Contents...

Naturals

4-7

Natural elements encourage and excite children to participate in open-ended interactions, learn about risk-taking and develop their awareness and appreciation of the environment.

Outdoor

8-13

Our fantastic range of products encourage children to use the outdoors more! From painting to building dens the choice is endless. We advise that all outdoor products will need to be maintained correctly and sheltered in adverse weather conditions.

Nursery

14-21

Products intended to encourage imaginary play and interaction as well as those that help develop cognitive ability and fine motor skills, make learning fun for children at this impressionable stage.

Early Years

22-43

Our innovative early years section is packed full of exciting products to support and encourage children through this fundamental stage of learning. This diverse range of products will support young children to learn through play and boost their interaction skills.

Curriculum

44-59

Encourage children to become effective communicators with our range of toys and resources, which will enable children to become more confident in a variety of curriculum subjects.

Physical Education

60-63

Children's natural enthusiasm for movement will be satisfied with our Activity Play section! Our We Play balance range is robust and perfect for encouraging balancing skills and coordination. Our extensive range is suitable for all classroom and nursery requirements
